

I would like the law for telemarketers to be no less the the current Indiana law. This has been a great help to home life with much less hassle because the phone is not ringing off the hook 7 days a week sometimes as late as 930pm.